

DR KEN LUM

Dr Ken Lum is the Chief Operations Officer and head of operations for the company. He holds a PhD in Anthropology (UQ), has been employed by the company upon its inception, and was appointed to this position in May 2006. Dr Lum was the company's head of research immediately preceding his appointment. Dr Lum has a wealth of experience in Indigenous affairs and is recognised as a leading anthropologist in his field. He has 17 years experience in Aboriginal land rights and worked in the Northern Territory for 10 years as a research anthropologist for the Northern Land Council native title unit. He was then employed by NSWALC as the principal research anthropologist (native title unit).

Dr Lum is a published author and has worked principally under the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1976 (NT), the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth) and the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983 (NSW).

MR DAMIEN BIDJARA-BARNES

Mr Damien Bidjara-Barnes is a Bidjara Murri from Central Queensland. His family is from Woorabinda, Rockhampton and Sydney.

Mr Bidjara-Barnes was appointed as the Principal Solicitor for the company on 1 January 2008. He is the solicitor on the record in the Federal Court of Australia for native title claims by traditional owners represented by the company. He is also solicitor on the record for all other claims in which the company acts.

Mr Bidjara-Barnes holds a Bachelor of Engineering (USyd), as well as a Bachelor of Laws (UNSW), and has extensive experience in construction, mining and native title law.

He has eight years experience as a practising solicitor and is the recipient of the National Australia Bank Indigenous Scholarship to undertake an Executive MBA through Melbourne Business School.