

YOUTH INITIATIVE

Oxfam Australia is looking for new project partner organisations who wish to work for long lasting change and to empower Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander youth.

We are seeking to work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations who would like to develop innovative projects that encourage:

- Youth empowerment
- Youth leadership skills
- Human rights awareness
- Community development

Up to $20,000 in funding is available for successful applicants

Types of things we can fund:

Youth groups
Youth forums and networks
Youth leadership projects
Projects which build new skills in your organisation
Youth projects which involve the wider community

Types of things we will not fund:

Sporting activities
One off events
Infrastructure (building and construction)
Work that is already being done in the area

If your organisation is interested in working in partnership with Oxfam Australia, please send us a 300 word expression of interest describing the background of your organisation and what sort of project you would like to develop

By 7 April 2008 to:

Oxfam Australia
Youth and Self Determination Program Coordinator
Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples' Program
132 Leicester St, Carlton Vic, 3053
Ph: (03) 9289 9304
Fax: (03) 9347 1495
Email: karinam@oxfam.org.au

Treahna Hamm, 2007, © artist.